

Honor our History with your Sponsorship of History Day in the Park

Phillippi Estate Park, as the home of the Edson Keith Mansion and the historic Keith Farmhouse, is holding History Day in the Park on Saturday March 25 2023. We're helping preserve the fascinating history of the greater Sarasota area by presenting local history to residents and visitors.

We're asking you to let the public know you agree that conserving local history is a priority.

We're partnering with nonprofit groups around the region who focus on the historic places, people, and events from prehistory to "just yesterday." These happenings have formed our present-day communities and influence what happens next: our futures going forward.

History Day in the Park will present the Park and draw attention to the fund-raising to open, in the preserved and repurposed Keith Farmhouse, an Interpretive Center of Life on the Creek. Once completed, the Interpretive Center will be open to the public free of charge to learn about the 60-acre property, view prehistoric artifacts and historical items used on the estate.

During History Day adults and children will have hands-on learning experiences and interact with all aspects of the history of this land, from prehistory to today. Over fifty centuries of living on Phillippi Creek means there's a lot to marvel at!

Sponsorship Levels:

$5000 History Heroes Honoring over 5000 Years of History on the Creek
